WELCOME

On behalf of the VKFF Team, welcome to Renmark in the Riverland region of South Australia and the inaugural VKFF National Get Together.

In 2021 I came up with the idea of a gathering of VKFF park activators and hunters. The inaugural event was to be held in 2022 but sadly this was cancelled due to COVID.

The annual VKFF National Get Together will be held each year in a different State/Territory in Australia. The location of next year's 2024 VKFF National Get Together will be announced at this year's Saturday evening dinner.

We hope that you enjoy the camaraderie at the Renmark event, the presentations, and all that there is to offer in the beautiful Riverland region of South Australia.

On behalf of the VKFF Team, I hope you enjoy the event.

73 and '44',

Paul VK5PAS
VKFF National Co-Ordinator.

INFORMATION ABOUT RENMARK

Renmark is located in the Riverland region of South Australia, about 260 km northeast of Adelaide.

It is believed that Renmark is an aboriginal word meaning 'red mud'. The original inhabitants of the area were the Erawirung people.

Captain Charles Sturt was the first European to pass through the Renmark area in January 1830 during his navigation of the length of the Murray River.

From about 1887 a settlement commenced to grow in the area following the establishment of the Renmark Irrigation Settlement by George and William Chaffey. They established a system of open drains using water from the Murray River to allow orchards to be planted.

The town of Renmark was proclaimed in 1904, and a municipality in 1935.
